SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 5 years.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and two periodic drug tests thereafter.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions in this judgment.

STANDARD CONDITIONS

- 1) The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) The defendant shall support his or her dependants and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere, and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court; and
- 13) As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) The defendant shall not possess or use a computer without the prior approval of the probation officer. "Computer" includes any electronic device capable of accessing the internet or processing or storing data as described at 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1) (including cell phones), and all peripheral devices.
- 2) As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall enroll in the probation office's Computer and Internet Monitoring Program (CIMP) and shall abide by the requirements of the CIMP program and the Acceptable Use Contract.
3. The defendant shall not access the Internet or any "on-line computer service" at any location (including employment) without the prior approval of the probation officer. "On-line services" include any Internet service provider, or any other public or private computer network. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall warn his/her employer of restrictions to his computer use.
4. The defendant shall consent to the probation officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of his computer equipment which may include retrieval and copying of all data from his computer(s) and any peripheral device to ensure compliance with this condition, and/or removal of any such equipment for the purpose of conducting more thorough inspection. The defendant shall also consent to the installation of any hardware or software as directed by the probation officer to monitor the defendant's Internet use.
5. The defendant shall not possess or use any data encryption technique or program.
6. The defendant shall not possess, in any form, materials depicting child pornography, child erotica, or nude or sexual depictions of any child; or any materials described at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8).
7. The defendant shall not access, via the Internet or otherwise, any pornography or other materials depicting sexually explicit conduct as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2), without the prior approval of the probation officer.
8. The defendant shall not frequent or loiter within 100 feet of any location where children are likely to gather, or have contact with any child under the age of 18 unless otherwise approved by the probation officer. Children are likely to gather in locations including, but not limited to, playgrounds, theme parks, public swimming pools, schools, arcades, children's museums or other specific locations as designated by the probation officer. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., with whom the defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
9. The defendant's residence shall be approved by the probation officer, and any change in residence must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the address of any proposed residence to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change.
10. The defendant shall participate in sex offender-specific treatment, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer. The probation officer may release all previous mental health evaluations to the treatment provider.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

11. As part of the treatment program, the defendant shall submit to polygraph or other psychological testing as recommended by the treatment provider. However, the defendant retains his Fifth Amendment right to refuse to answer questions asked during the course of treatment absent a grant of use and derivative use immunity. The defendant's statements will not be used against him in a separate federal revocation proceeding. The Probation Office or any law enforcement authority may conduct an independent investigation based on a defendant's admissions, and evidence developed as a result of that investigation may be used in any separate proceeding, including a separate federal revocation proceeding.

12. The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency as required by state law. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within three days of release from imprisonment/placement on supervision. In any state that has adopted the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 USC sec. 16901 et seq.), the defendant shall also comply with all such requirements as directed by the Probation Officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense.

13. The defendant shall pay any special assessment that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

14) The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

15) The defendant shall not own or possess any firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons.

16) Court imposes a fine of $5,000.00 which is due immediately.
